Land Group, Planners To Meet Dec. 8

Next step in the overall plan to develop Southern Alameda County takes place when the Alameda County Land Development committee meets with the County Planning commission December 8.

The two groups are scheduled to discuss features of the committee's proposal for a master plan in Eden and Washington townships.

The committee submitted a 53-page study of Eden and Washington townships to county officials earlier this month.

It suggested speed-up of a master plan with specific references on five types of developments—residential, commercial, agricultural, industrial and utilities.

Supervisor Kent Pursel, appearing before the commission, last week urged the meeting be held "at the earliest possible date." He said a letter from the

Niles Students Painting Winners

Niles youngsters were awarded cash prizes for their artistic skill Tuesday by the local chamber of commerce.

The prizes were for Halloween window-painting along First Street. Winners of first honors were Darlene Cahill, Bobby Kaiser, Sharon Rose, Phyllis Winters and David Nichol. Their cooperative efforts decorated the Niles Electric Co. windows.

Second place went to Loring Bunting, Bill Hoefer was third, and Ben Montanez, fourth. Judges were headed by Mrs. Byrde Duffey.

E. C. Parks, chairman for the event, reported 600 youngsters took part in the Halloween parade from the school, and later were guests of the chamber at a hot-dog feed.

Supt. of Schools E. D. Bristow said the affair "set an all time high for community co-operation and good will."

Play School Trip To 'Fairylend'

Participants of the Humpty Dumpty Play School took a recent trip to "Fairylend" in celebration of Halloween. The trip was made by car. After visiting Fairylend, the group played on "The Monster" at Lakeside Park.

The following children and mothers made the trip: Mary and Margie Currie and Mrs. Lynn Currie; Sharon and David Driggs and Mrs. Cheryl Driggs; Chappie and Kristi Lindsay and Mrs. Dolores Lindsay; Donna and Harriet Plummer; Eddie Quinn and Mrs. Dolores Quinn; Steven Hoy; Randy Leal and Mrs. Alvina Leal; Marta McGinnis; Gregg and Scot Melvin and Mrs. Liz Melvin; Steve Perry and Mrs. Geraldine Perry; Randy Peters and Mrs. Darlene Peters; John Wallman and Mrs. Scotty Wallman; Chris and Steve Drouin and Mrs. Katherine Drouin; Patty DeVries and Mrs. Jean DeVries; Kathy Dee Gomez and Mrs. Ruth Gomez; Tommy Keller; Nancy Machado and Mrs. Jean Machado; Bobby Pierce and Mrs. Patricia Pierce; Marjorie Secada and Mrs. Evelyn Secada.

Woodcraft Meeting

Jesuit Mission For Alvarado

Beginning with the 8:30 and 10:00 o'clock Mass this Sunday, a Jesuit Mission is being conducted at St. Anne's Catholic Church, Alvarado, by the Reverend John Brolan, S. J.

Mission services will consist of evening devotions at 7:45, at which will be featured the Mission Sermon. The daily Mass will be at 7 a.m., with a short instruction during the Mass. There will also be a Mission for the children of the Parish during the week.

Father Brolan is an outstanding Jesuit Missionary, well-known up and down the West Coast. Father Thomas Gilbert, pastor of St. Anne's invites both Catholics and non-Catholics to attend these services and hear this outstanding speaker. The Mission will continue from November 7 until November 14.

Mrs. Engel of Irvington Dies

Mrs. Elizabeth I. Engel, 66, a native of Irvington and resident here most of her life, died in Oakland Sunday.

She is survived by two sons, William H. of Irvington and Robert I. of San Jose; a sister, Miss Nellie Beardsley of Irvington, and five grandchildren.

Services were Tuesday in San Jose with the Rev. Hugh Olson of the San Jose Church of Christ officiating. Interment will be at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

Benefit Film November 20

Mothers who want to park the offspring and shop the Saturday before Thanksgiving were reminded today that a special morning benefit movie will be held at the Center Theater on November 20.

In cooperation with Russ Osborne, theater manager, Toyon Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay will present the circus film "Annie Get Your Gun," plus cartoons and short subjects.

Doors will open at 10 a.m., and youngsters can be picked up about 1 p.m., Osborne advises.

Rec' District Plan Goes to Supervisors

Doorbell-ringing paid off last week for backers of the Township-wide recreation district plan, and petitions with 1370 signatures asking for the program went forward to the Supervisors.

Ronald Lambert, chairman of the committee sponsoring the district, made this announcement today.

Lambert estimated that only about 1235 signatures would have been needed to qualify the district for an election. Now the issue is up to the Supervisors, who will set a hearing date shortly.

Lambert thanked those who circulated the petitions, ringing more than 1500 doorbells, he said. In Mission San Jose alone, 200 signatures were collected.

The proposed district would exclude Newark, which has one of its own. Cost is estimated at less than 25 cents per $100 taxable valuation per year.

Layton Awarded Factory Design

Raymond E. Layton, engineer-designer, this week was awarded the contract to draw plans for American Forest Products' giant corrugated-paper box factory near Newark.

Layton, who maintains offices in Hayward, was the designer for the NEWS-REGISTER building in Centerville.

The AFP factory will cost about $2,500,000 and will employ more than 100 persons. It will be located on the railroad at Birch. It will contain 120,000 square feet.

Layton estimated plans would be completed so that the company will be able to break ground soon after January 1.

Eagles Auxiliary

Eagles Auxiliary met October 25 at Eagles Hall, Alvarado. Honored were Susie Davis and Alice Menezes, treasurer. Corsages and gifts were given to both.

Final plans were made for the November 8 meeting, when the State president will make her official visit. Livermore and Hayward Auxiliaries will assist. After the meeting the men treated the girls to a "corn" feed.

Junior Women Charter Night Is Saturday

Attending the Charter Party at the Sportsmen's Club in Mission San Jose next Saturday will be the twenty-five charter members of the Washington Township Junior Women's Club and their husbands.

Plans were made at the October 28 meeting held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Karlstedt, Niles, Mrs. Dennett Doehner, hospitality chairman, will act as general chairman for the affair.

Mrs. Frederick Ludden, citizenship chairman, read a letter received from Supt. J. V. Gold expressing his appreciation for the help of the Washington Township Juniors with their telephone work to get out the vote in the recent high school tax election.

Mrs. Paul Melvin was appointed by Paul-Laws Chairman by the President with Mmes. Frederick Ludden, Robert McGinnis, Robert Peters, and Robert Drouin elected as her committee. Mrs. John McSwain, district treasurer, will act as advisor to the committee.

Mrs. Arthur Karlstedt, vice-president, reported on the District Conference October 16 at which the local club won the attendance award, eleven members being present.

Next regular business meeting will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, November 18, at the home of Mrs. Ludden, 555 Cerritos Drive, Centerville.

School Trustees At Convention

Washington Township School Districts were well represented at the California School Boards Association Convention and the California School Administrators Convention held consecutively in Long Beach.

Sam G. Scott did triple duty at Long Beach as he represented the Washington Union High School District, Newark Elementary School District and the Alameda County School Trustees Association, which he serves as president.

Jack MacGregor, superintendent of the Newark School District attended as did Dr. Harold Schoenfeld and Harold Plummer of the Decoto School District.

Niles School District was represented by Donald S. Bragg. The 24th Annual School Boards Association Convention was presided over by President Carl B. Munk of the Oakland Board of Education, past president of the Alameda County School Trustees Association.

Brownies Start In Irvington

The first meeting of the Brownie Scouts at their leaders' home last Tuesday was all the mothers expected and more. Bonnie Berry and Janice Borden were added to the newcomers listed last week.

Due to need for additional space, it was decided to hold meetings at the school beginning Tuesday, November 2. Weekly meetings will be held from 2:30 until 4:00. The mothers' meetings will continue to be held at the leader's home, Mrs. Helen L. Bright, 112 Columbia Avenue, Irvington Square the second Tuesday of every month from 1:00 until 2:15. All mothers are urged to attend.

No 'Deal' For Newark Meters

The Alameda County Water District preserved its aloof role last week in a row between a Newark subdivision and two householders.

Directors told the attorney for Ray B. McCann and S. A. Fazio, who bought homes in the Kvistad subdivision on Cherry Road that they won't turn on water service until somebody pays a $10 meter-installation fee.

Dist. Mgr. Matt Whitfield Jr. explained some 30 homeowners "have a difference of opinion" with Kvistad "over the subdivision's obligations." One of these disputes he said, is who should pay for the water meter.

Whitfield said the row has raged for eight months, with neither Kvistad nor the buyers willing to pay the fee. Finally, he went on, he ordered the water turned off. This brought all but McCann and Fazio in with the $10.

Whitfield explained that under a former district policy subdivisions didn't pay the district the $10 until they collected from buyers. Now the district gets the fee first.

The homeowners evidently expected Kvistad to pay it, Whitfield continued. However he warned against "making any exceptions."

Director Louis Amaral suggested the district "split the difference" but on motion of Director Jack Prouty, it was decided to hold the line.

Norris School Rites Sunday

Dedication of the Allen G. Norris Grammar School will be held Sunday with the man after whom the $250,000 school is named on hand to rejoice at its completion.

Judge Norris, longtime school trustee before ascending to the Superior bench, will be honored at ceremonies staged by Washington Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West.

The rites begin at 2 p.m. on the school grounds, according to Al Silveria, chairman for the day. David Stuart, Grand president of the NSGW, will be featured speaker.

The Washington Union High School band will play, and a colorguard will be furnished by Battery C, 629th National Guard Artillery.

Presbyterian Day Nursery Enlarged

The week-day nursery school sponsored by the Centerville Presbyterian Church is being enlarged to twenty youngsters, it was announced this week by the director, Mrs. Ruth Fuhr, wife of the local pastor.

The school was organized this past September, and was originally licensed for ten children. The school operates in the church Sunday school building each week-day, Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. It is a non-profit enterprise, with proceeds after salary and expenses going to the church new building fund.

Under the new license permitting twenty children, facilities will be enlarged, and a second teacher, Mrs. Ruth Penner of Centerville, will be added. Transportation to and from school is being offered for children living in the Centerville area.

The combination climbing gym and play house shown in the picture was designed and built by Rev. Tom Fuhr, and manufactured recently by a Nebraska firm. The school now uses two such gyms including such accessories as slide, teeter-totter, swing, and rope ladder.

Around Irvington Square

By Helen L. Bright

News Flash! Irvington Square just had its first brand-new baby last Wednesday night, Mrs. James Daly gave birth to eight pound-three ounce Anna Marie. The parents were very proud and happy to be blessed with a little daughter after having two sons, Mike 7 and Johnny 3. They agree that boys are nice but it's always fun to have a little gal to dress in frills.

I followed the smoke the other day to find a grass fire here in the square had ignited quite a supply of roofing paper. Everything was brought under control before the Irvington Fire Department arrived.

Our population has really been growing these past few days. We now have a total of twenty families in our community. Our latest residents are:

Mr. and Mrs. M.S. Neall at 104 Columbia Avenue. Mr. Neall is employed by Caterpillar Tractor Company in San Leandro. They have two children, Margaret age 53 and in kindergarten in Irvington and Timothy, age four, stays at home and keeps mother company.

At 126 Columbia Avenue we find Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sparman. He works for the Edward Roofing Company in Oakland. Their only son Richard is 2 years old.

On around the corner from them we find Mr. and Mrs. Donald Presley at 3 Jamestown Road. He is a dispatcher for Pacific Gas and Electric in Oakland. Ten year old Gary is in the fifth grade while five year old Arlan is in kindergarten both at Irvington Elementary School.

Over at 107 Montrose Avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Hunter. Mr. Hunter is employed by the Trucot Construction Company. They have two boys: Roger Eugene age 23 and James William, age 9 months. Mr. and Mrs. John Hidalgo are living at 108 Montrose Avenue. He works for Bulldog Pallet Company in Newark. They have no little ones but do have a cute little 6-week-old puppy.

Frank J. Bowen is at 113 Montrose Avenue. He is associated with the Burgermeister Brewery Company in San Francisco, and formerly lived in Alameda.

And at 117 Montrose are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sandoval. He is employed by the East Bay Sheet Metal Company in Oakland. Harry LeRoy will be 7 in December and is in the second grade at Irvington Elementary school.

I noticed a sign tacked on one of the doors I stopped at the other day and I'm sure that many of us housewives share this particular ladies sentiments. "Absolutely no more Salesmen!!! You have nothing I can't get at town!!!!"

Seriously, it does get a little maddening after you've just moved in, get to the back of the house unpacking boxes and find door bell rings every few minutes. But I guess that's the way it goes when you move into a new tract.

Cripples Back For Mt. View

Mountain View's featherless Eagles play here tomorrow night, and Washington Coach Clyde Voorhees' crippled men may have found a SCVAL club their size. The Eagles are sporting four losses in a row. The most recent came when powerful Fremont crushed them, 25-6, last Friday. Fremont beat Washington 32-6 in the loop opener, but observers agreed the Huskies looked better against them than Mountain View did. And at least Washington has two wins: over Carimont and Los Gatos.

Moreover, Voorhees is expecting some help off the injury roster: Fullback Ron Masuda may be ready for the game, and Dr. Merie Buehler, team physician, has given Guard Conrad Preciado a tentative okeh to play. It was the loss of Preciado two weeks ago, with a broken blood vessel in his leg which cost the Huskies their major mainstay in the line. Big guns for the Eagles are Quarterback Don Sullivan and End Wayne Wagner. "We could win the next two," says Voorhees, meaning Mountain View and Poly HI of San Francisco Reserves, slated for an afternoon tilt here on November 11.

Regarding powerful Campbell the following week, the Malumute mentor isn't so optimistic. It all depends on injuries.

Model Busters to Fly At W.U.H.S.

This Sunday November 7, at the Washington Union High School, the Model Busters are having a club day contest flying.

There will be events not usually seen at contests, such as balloon-busting and hand-launched gliders. All local modelers or persons interested in modeling are invited to come out for a day of thrills and fun.

There will be club members present who will be glad to help a beginner or whatever help is needed in starting engines. This is free and open to the public. CC

California had an estimated 637,000 colonies of bees in 1953.

The Santa Clara Panthers, led by their hard-charging full back Fred Blanco, remained unbeaten as they set down the Washington Huskies, 27-13, last Friday night at Santa Clara. It looked as though the Panthers were going to make a runaway of the affair as they rolled up a 20-0 lead at half time but revived defensive play by the Washington line held them scoreless until the last two minutes of the game.

Tino Rangel of Washington took the opening kickoff and ran it back to his own 45 yard line. On the next play, Rangel fumbled and Ray Araujo of the Panthers scooped it up on the Husky 35-yard line and raced into the end zone for the first Santa Clara touchdown before 30 seconds had been played. Blanco recovered to make it 7-0.

Santa Clara moved all the way down to the Husky five-yard line in the opening moments of the second quarter, only to fumble. Rangel recovered for Washington. Unable to get a drive going, the Huskies were forced to punt.

The ball rolled dead on the Husky 28. Quarterback Ruben Ybarra broke through center on the first play for 25 yards, down to the Husky 3. Blanco plowed over on the next play. The conversion was good and the score stood at 14-0.

Blanco scored again a few minutes later from the two after he had set up the TD with a 33-yard run. He failed to boot the conversion and the score was 20-0 at half time.

When the Huskies took the field for the third quarter they looked like a new ball club. Washington kicked to the Panthers and End Ken Galloway of the Huskies recovered a fumble on the Santa Clara 23-yard line.

Rangel then went for a gain of 7. Halfback Al Rodriguez followed with a one yard gain. Rangel then hauled in a pass from Rangel to make the conversion good.

Later in the same period the Huskies began to roll again. Rangel took a Santa Clara punt on his own 30 and reached the 42 yard line before being hauled down. Rangel then followed with a 24-yard aerial to Ed Fletcher. The drive was halted when Washington fumbled and the Panthers recovered.

On the second Panther play, Tackle Dave Koelsch broke through the line to recover a fumble by Blanco on the Husky 43. Fullback Don Stewart went for four and Rangel followed with a 39-yard pass to Ken Galloway who was downed on the 10-yard line. Rangel then flipped a short pass to Rodriguez who stepped over the goal for Washington's second TD. The conversion attempt failed, and Washington trailed, 20-13.

Santa Clara took over on the 17 after the kickoff and on the first play Ruben Ybarra crashed through to the 45-yard line only to be penalized back to the 2-yard line by a 15-yard penalty.

The Panthers final score came in the closing minutes of the final period. Ybarra went over for the TD but was called back on a penalty. On the next play Ybarra rambled 20 yards to paydirt again and this time it was good. Blanco's kick was good and the game ended 27-13.

Santa Clara ran up a total of 323 yards, all by rushing, to the Huskies' 201. The Panthers attempted only 2 passes, both incomplete. Blanco and Ybarra were responsible for 242 of the 323. Rangel accounted for 176 of Washington's 201 yards gained. He made 23 rushing and passed for 153.

Clarence Nunes, star half-back for the Panthers, was injured early in the first quarter and was out for the remainder of the game.

The win gives the Panthers a 3-0-1 record, second only to Fremont who has won three and lost nine. Santa Clara and Fremont will not meet until the final game of the season.

Fremont downed the Mt. View Eagles 25-6, in the only other league game played last Friday. Halfback Phil Cordero led the Indian attack. In a practice game Los Gatos rolled to a 27-13 victory over Menlo School for Boys. Jim Sparks scored three touchdowns and made one conversion to lead Los Gatos to victory. Jim Gilligan tallied the other Wildcat touchdown.

'C' Basketball Trims Panthers For 4th Straight

Washington High's "C" basketball team continued their winning ways as they slipped past the Santa Clara C's, 35-32, last Thursday in an SCVAL game played at Santa Clara.

It was their fourth straight league win without a setback. Eddie Santos and Hiro Kurton led Washington with 11 and 9 points, respectively. Santa Clara led Washington 11-10 at the half.

The Washington D team, still winless, lost to the Santa Clara D's by a 36-19 score. Washington scored 8 points in the first quarter and 11 in the second and went scoreless throughout the rest of the game.

Larry Jones and Ron Matsumoto, both of Santa Clara, tied for scoring honors with 10 points each. Monte De Rey tallied 7 for Washington.

Pups Ahead But Fall To Santa Clara Surge, 19-12

By JERRY SANFORD

The Washington High Puppies piled up a 12-0 lead, but faded in the second half and lost, 19-12, to the Santa Clara "B's" last Friday.

Washington scored first early in the first quarter when Johnny Adams hit Arnold Hernandez with a 29-yard pass.

Stan Rebello scored the Pup's second tally early in the second period from one yard out. Adams failed in both conversion attempts.

Trailing 12-0, Santa Clara came back in the same period with a touchdown to make it 12-6 when Robert Freitas scored on a 60 yard run. It looked as though the Pups had the game in the bag as they left the field at halftime.

Washington recovered a Santa Clara fumble on their own 5-yard line soon after the start of the second half. Milton Martini went for a 5-yard gain on the first play and Adams followed with a short pass to Hernandez. The Pups failed to make the first down and were forced to punt.

The Panthers took the punt and drove to the Pups' 13 where they fumbled and Washington recovered. Rebello went for a gain of 5 yards but on the next play the Pups fumbled again, and Santa Clara recovered on the 10.

Washington took over on their own 2-yard line after another goal-line stand. Adams punted out of his own end zone and the Panthers took over on the 31. Tachibana then hit Alvarez with a TD pass to tie up the game. The conversion was good making it 13-12 in favor of Santa Clara.

Later in the final period the Panthers intercepted an Adams pass on the Pup 45. Freitas then rambled all the way to score his second touchdown and gave the Panthers a 19-12 victory.

Olk, Von Euw Star For JC

Last year's Husky scoring combination of Alan Olk and Carl Von Euw is making grid history at San Jose Junior College.

Last Friday it was Olk's 30-yard field goal in the final quarter that gave the JC Jaguars a 9-7 win over Contra Costa JC. And it was Olk's 52-yard "end-around" pass to Von Euw that permitted the Jags their other score in the second stanza. Von Euw grabbed the spheroid and sauntered the remaining three yards to paydirt.

The two local youths hold down the flanks for the San Jose club. Last year Von Euw was an outstanding Husky while Olk, a converted wingman, played quarterback for the Voorheesmen. This fall they have been standouts in each game the Jaguars played.

In the fourth quarter Olk missed narrowly establishing some sort of record when he took a handoff on another end-around and arched a pass 76 yards in the air to Van Euw, only to have it batted away by a Contra Costa defender.

Homeowners of Newark Debate Meeting Dates

The question of frequency of meetings was left unanswered at the general assembly meeting of the Newark Home Owners Improvement Association last Wednesday at the Pavilion.

Sixty members present debated the wisdom of limiting open assembly meetings to four times a year (except by special call of the president or executive board) because, as some members said, they believed more frequent meetings would generate and maintain more membership interest.

President Everett Ezra adroitly kept the discussion away from any attempt to amend the constitution and said:

"I can foresee calling many special meetings during the coming year". When the discussion continued, Ezra finally agreed to call a special meeting during November.

George Silliman, civic committee chairman, reported that preliminary investigation of the open drainage ditch between Zulmida and Mayhews has shown Smith-Peters to be no longer concerned as they have completed the ditch according to specifications. The members voted to write a letter to Supervisor Chester E. Stanley asking action to relieve the area of the health and safety menace. The motion was made by Jack Conger.

Joe Tindall made a motion that the civic committee investigate the possibility of acquiring white crosswalk lines at all intersections in Los Ranchitos tract. An amendment was immediately proposed by Marvin Hudson who wanted the same investigation made community-wide for Newark, or at least for the civic committee to find out whether it is more feasible: sectional or community-wide. After some discussion of whether it is better to take it "a bite at a time or the whole loaf", the members voted to go for the whole loaf and make it community-wide.

The members unanimously approved a motion to ask that speed limit signs be posted at strategic places throughout the community. The motion was made by Joe Tindall.

The civic committee was asked to investigate the possibility of the removal of the dairy across Mayhews Landing Road as a health menace. Mrs. Betty Potts said "the flies are terrific", and cited other health hazards it creates.

Whether the HOIA will become an incorporated non-profit organization will be decided "by ballot" of the entire membership. This is a unique feature of the HOIA and gives the members who were unable to attend a voice in important decisions. The motion to incorporate was made by George Silliman.

Ezra will appoint a special committee to investigate the necessity of the organization carrying comprehensive liability insurance. Mrs. Golson Young asked if the association planned to insure itself.

Township District For Recreation Held Vital

A plea to support the current drive for a Township-wide recreation district was made before the Rotary Club last week by Miss Julia Minor, Hayward welfare worker.

"Our forefathers had the time to establish parks," Miss Minor illustrated. "But we move at a tempo too fast to follow unless we establish this district. The need is increasing daily."

Population of the East Bay has grown at the rate of 7600 persons a month since 1946, Miss Minor went on, with the bulk of the population coming to the region south of Oakland.

"Only Pleasanton and Washington Township don't have some sort of public recreation," she asserted. "You can go quickly now, or wait and go slow, and carry a heavier load later."

Petitions are out this week asking for formation of the district. It will cost a maximum of 25 cents per $100 valuation. Miss Minor said

DECOTO NEWS

By GRACE CAMINADA

John Torres of San Jose and Marcos Duran of Salinas, both active members of the C.S.O., were guests at a meeting held October 28, in the Decoto Grammar School. Citizenship was discussed and anyone wishing to make an application may stop in at the C.S.O. office near the Holy Rosary Church from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. daily and on Saturday from 9 to 4 p.m. Information about citizenship classes may be had by calling Henry Rivera, Mike Rodriguez, and Paul Ramirez. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 11, at 6th and C Streets.

Costume parades in observance of Halloween were held on Friday for both the morning and afternoon sessions.

The Carnival on Saturday evening consisted of many games, movies and dancing. Refreshments were sold. Many of the booths' supplies ran out but a good crowd attended, all had fun. PTA members assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bonaudi of San Francisco were sponsors for their niece Judy Pauline, daughter of Howard and Rose Vincent of Decoto Road. After the ceremony at the Holy Rosary Church, a family dinner including out of town guests was held at the Vincent home.

A good time was in store for all the guests of the party held for 6-year-old Joe Munoz, who celebrated his birthday recently. Refreshments were enjoyed and out-of-door games played.

Herbert, Sandra and Dennis Vincent motored to San Francisco to attend the wedding of Sandra's sister on Saturday.

Dual Role In Zone Dispute At Centerville

The dual role of one of its members this week muffled operations of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber was considering a request for residential rezoning. Land involved: 31 acres east of the Visking plant originally scheduled for 150 homes by Kroll Builders. The firm was denied a use permit to build when Centerville was zoned recently. The land was designated industrial.

On Monday, a petition signed by N. A. Diamond and James R. Meyer of the Glenmoor Home-owners Association reached the chamber. It asked that the body support Kroll's bid of rezoning. Said the letter: the land is too close to good homes in Glenmoor and Glenwood Manor to be used for factories.

Eugene Manning complained that the letter overlooked the fact that the property is between two factories (Visking and Booth Cannery) and is eminently suited for industry. LeRoy Brown declared:

"This is politicking by Kroll to try and overcome the gamble they made and lost." Then Acting President Dan Irwin tried to refer the issue to the chamber's planning committee. Said L. S. Williams:

"Jim Meyer is the chairman of that committee. I'm on it too and I own land in the area. We'd be disqualified."

Nevertheless the matter was sent along to Meyer's committee for report.

Harold Mohr of Hayward also asked for rezoning opposite the Centerville Elementary School, on Main Street, so he can build a clinic. This was turned down two weeks ago by the Planning Commission. This item was referred to Meyer's committee for recommendation.

Alvarado Farm Home Meeting

The Alvarado Farm Home Department met at the Parish Hall in Centerville on Friday, October 28, with Chairman Elsie Madruga presiding.

Twenty-four members answered roll call. Mrs. Christine Crotte, home advisor, conducted the project of "know your meats."

Members having birthdays the last half of the year were honored and each received an exchange gift. Chairman Mrs. June Wallace and her committee served cake and coffee.

The center will be hostess to County Committee Farm Bureau Home Department on December 1, at Crow Canyon Chateau. This will be a Christmas party with exchange of gifts and a program.

Due to Thanksgiving Day the November meeting has been changed to November 18. The following members attended Region 9 meeting at Livermore on October 22. Mesdames: Jessie Murphy, Mamie Perry, Palmyra Mosegaard, Elsie Madruga, and Angie Furtado.

Soito Pumping Resumes Over Opposition

Pumping resumed Tuesday at the controversial Soito well, near Newark, despite an unsatisfactory poll of farm neighbors by the Alameda County Water District.

Two dozen farmers last summer halted the district from pumping, via legal injunction, claiming their own wells were being sucked dry.

District Mer. Matt Whitfield Jr., on order of his directors, asked John Valles, farmer spokesman, if there were objections to Soito Well pumping during the winter, when irrigation is at a minimum.

Whitfield said Valles replied the farmers want no pumping whatever. Whitfield then said he contacted Valles again and asked how the farmers felt about the Soito Well as an "interim" water supply source, in view of the fact the district is contemplating a substitute well half a mile distant, on Thornton at Mayhews Landing Road.

Valles said the answer was the same, Whitfield said. The district then resumed pumping at the Soito site, hoping to save taxpayers $1000 a month in extra fees paid for Hetch-Hetchy water, the manager explained. The Soito Well, on lease, is pumping about 180 gallons a minute today.

Hospital Plan Has State OK, Bids Next

Directors of the Washington Township Hospital District were to call for bids on their $1,250,000 hospital this week, following approval of building plans Friday in Sacramento.

Word of the State's green light came in a message to Chairman L. S. Whitaker from J. E. Miller, official of the Department of Public Health.

Whitaker said bids would be called at once for the institution, designed as a 63-bed hospital with the proviso that 13 beds can be left out for the time being, to save money.

Only minor changes, mostly concerning painting, were made by the State on the blueprints submitted by the architects, Sorensen & Ellsworth.

Mrs. Grace Turnage Dies In Newark

Grace C. Turnage, 69, died at her residence, 660 Mulberry Avenue, Newark, on Tuesday.

She was the wife of Edward Turnage, mother of Mrs. Bethel Coonce, of Los Gatos, Mrs. Edwina Harrison of Newark, Mrs. Zelpha Booth of Oklahoma, Mrs. Wava Stanaland of Hayward, Paul Turnage of Centerville; sister of Mrs. Maude Doyle, Glendale, and Walter and Arch Kinnamon, both of Oklahoma.

Surviving are 10 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. A native of Nebraska, and a member of the Mariner's Club of the Newark Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services are Friday, at 1:00 p.m. with Rev. Martin Tenner officiating.

Interment will be at Lone Tree Cemetery, Hayward.

"WETBACK" MEXICANS ISSUE HAS A SOLUTION

Officer Joseph Olivera of the Richmond City Police Department, gave the main address before the Men's Club of Washington Township at Interlational Kitchen recently. His topic "The Wetbacks," told of his study of the Mexican's illegal entry into the United States. His three entries while disguised as a Mexican laborer, were done in the interest of studying the situation. Himself a former Mexican citizen, he has become a top-notch officer at Richmond. He is an authority on the subject, and his answer to the million or more dollars spent in feeding the "Wetback" (a million a year to California alone) is this.

Why not save that million and erect three labor camps, so the Mexican laborers suitable for the labor need, be set up close to the farming areas. One could be in Sacramento Valley, another in the San Joaquin Valley, and another in Los Angeles area.

Feeding the men would be a small bill compared to the present expense—especially as almost "every Wetback from Richmond area" is back in about a week after being deported. And the Mexican system showing the "hole in the wall" for entry, is very lucrative by those on the Mexican side of the borderline.

The vacation at Santa Rita is so happy for the Wetbacks who await deportation, that they live on the fat of the land, and consider it a holiday, said the officer. These Wetbacks are said to be good men who could do a good job here.

The Christmas party will be held soon, said Chairman Ray Truscott, with Bill Helm "at helm" of arrangements Dec. 9.

Farm Employment At Peak, Pickers Still Needed Here

California farm employment, already at near-record levels, due to heavy production in many crops, rose nearly 14,000 during the first half of October, to an estimated 538,000, well above the comparable week last year.

The year's peak was reached in early September when approximately 554,000 persons, including ranchers and unpaid family labor, were estimated to be working on the State's ranches and farms, according to the California Department of Employment Farm Placement Service.

Employment declined during September when important fruit and vegetable harvests ended, and students, vacationists, and housewives left farm jobs as schools reopened. The down trend was reversed in the first half of October due to the increased production this year of several heavy labor-using crops and an early start in certain fall harvests, particularly cotton.

Farm labor offices operated throughout the state by the Department of Employment generally reports a substantial increase in number of persons sent out to farm jobs this season as compared with last. Two East Bay offices, Oakland and Irvington, have referred more than 12,000 persons to farm jobs since mid-March, more than twice the 1953 figure, according to W. W. Allen, farm labor officer for the Department, with headquarters in Irvington on Highway 17. Phone Irvington 715.

Despite the high level of present farm employment, farm jobs are open in many areas of the state in a variety of crops, Allan stated. Current information on farm job opportunities, both locally and statewide, is three specialized farm labor offices now operating in the East Bay area and at Department of Employment city offices. As demand for workers and housing and transportation facilities available vary from day to day, job-seekers are advised to consult these offices before traveling long distances in search of farm work.

Heaviest current demand for harvest workers is for men and women tomato pickers, in the Centerville-Irvington area of Alameda County, along Highway 9 and 17, and near Pleasanton, off Highway 50. Wages are generally from 14c to 16c per country lug box, of approximately 45 to 50 pounds net.

Free transportation to tomato fields and return each night is offered on some of the jobs in growers' or labor contractors' trucks or buses, leaving the Oakland Farm Office at 5 a.m. daily. On some jobs, pickers must furnish or pay for transportation.

Southern Alameda County offers jobs for men experienced in stoop labor in cultivation and harvesting of vegetable crops. Demand for experienced orchard and vineyard pruners is expected to be active in many areas of Northern and Central California by mid-November. Orchard pruning has already begun on a limited scale in a few areas, Allan said.

C'ville Parking Lot Work Starts

Clearing operations began this week on the parking lot sponsored by the merchants of Centerville.

A Clements & Co. crew bulldozed ancient trees and thickets from the lot, which fronts on both Main Street and Fremont Avenue. Clements is donating $2,000 in labor and materials to the job.

Parking lot committeemen Sal Valente, Phil Willis and John Austin were on hand to oversee operations. More than 50 businessmen subscribed average of $5 a month to underwrite the lot, designed to provide convenient parking for downtown shoppers.

It will be ready within a month's time, the committee estimated. Most recent contribution to the program was $100 sent this week by the Bank of America, according to Branch Manager Loren Marriotti.

Bartell Blasts At Critics While Sidewalks Cool

Decoto sidewalks went fiddling last week while Supervisor Harry Bartell burned.

Bartell was fired at reports the Decoto Chamber of Commerce had asked to bar him from a county fair job upon his retirement this winter.

He made his feelings known at a sidewalk hearing in Oakland.

"Farmers and truckdrivers haven't any business in a chamber of commerce," he declared, referring to Truckdriver Ken Borghi Jr. a farmer, who presided.

Bartell also noted neither man was present at the sidewalk hearing, commenting: "Their interest can't count for much." He also asserted that Alameda County's charter doesn't permit a supervisor to accept any county job until a year after his retirement.

Meantime Manuel Hidalgo, representing the pro-sidewalk Decoto Homeowners, said petitions show the town wants sidewalks. Attorney Gene Rhodes countered that 60 percent of the local property-owners oppose them as too expensive. The supervisors pigeonholed the issue until today while petitions are checked.

Halloween Party At The McMahons

One of the gayest Halloween parties was given Sunday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank McMahon on Palm Avenue, Mission San Jose.

The McMahons served coffee and doughnuts to nearly 100 guests, young and old. Most were in costume.

Dr. McMahon greeted friends in clown attire, while Mrs. McMahon donned farmerette garb.

Roy Dean was a fearsome witch in a costume he wore the night previous at the Mission Scott Dance. Mrs. Walter Connolly was a pierrette in black with red pom-poms. Stebler Loze wore a skeleton get-up. Brad Agrella gave a nostalgic touch with a Roaring Twenties rig.

The McMahons' six youngsters conducted games for the small fry. Neighbors brought their little ones. The Ed Quaresmas had three of their five present.

The patio of the McMahons' enlarged home was decorated in gay colored lights and streamers for the affair.

$1000 Fire In Newark Home

With loss estimated at more than $1,000, the Lewis Machado home, Mayhews Landing Road and Sycamore Ave., Newark, was gutted by flames Monday afternoon shortly after Mrs. Machado had hung some gasoline-cleaned clothes to dry in the front room of her home.

The gasoline fumes were ignited by the pilot light from a house furnace which was four feet from the clothing. Mrs. Machado summoned a neighbor for help.

The Newark Fire Department responded to the alarm. Chief Joe Paschote estimated the damage in excess of $1,000.

The house is owned by Joseph Avila of Newark.

GLENMOOR GARDEN NEWS

By SARAH JANE PHILLIPS
(Centerville 8-2443)

Parents and children alike seemed to enjoy themselves the day of the big Halloween parade in Glenmoor. Over ninety children took part in the parade last Saturday. Joyce Burrous and Peggy Zawadzki won a doll as first prize for floats. Their float, mounted on a wagon, depicted a graveyard mastered by three spooks. The masterpiece was captioned, "Even the ghosts are moving to Glenmoor." First prize in the bicycle class was awarded to four-year-old Karen Carlson for her bicycle entry decorated with orange and black crepe paper and a black cat. She also was awarded a doll. Bruce Coffey won first prize in the costumes division with his robot costume. He was equipped with a red light which turned on and off and a television antenna and radio tube for a head-piece.

Other winners in the three divisions were: Floats, Jean, Joan, and Patsy Brooks; second prize, Jimmy Parks, third prize; bicycles, Kim Klassen, second, George La Far, third, Bobby Fratch, fourth, and Larry Park, fifth; costumes, Vicky Norman, second, Billy Buckpitt, third, Kenneth Owen, fourth, Mike Weinberg, fifth, and Bill Parker and Jim Burrous, honorable mention.

The judging was done by Frank Phillips, Tom Maloney, and E. A. Quaresma. Ice cream and prizes were provided by Glenmoor Gardens, Inc. Sponsors of the Recreation Department. Glen Camper, assisted by Lloyd Lerum, organized the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Campbell of Norris Court last Sunday entertained at a buffet supper the following former neighbors from San Leandro: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes, their children, David, Susan, and Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams, their children Donny, and Susan.

A percolator party was held at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Drouin October 25. It's called a "percolator" party because the proceeds from it will go toward purchasing an electric percolator for mothers who participate in the Humpty Dumpty Nursery School. (They don't have a pot folks). The following mesdames attended: C. W. Young, Henry W. DeVries, Jas. Fletner, Ben Klassen and Don Romulo, Glenmoor; Lester Cour- sin, Frederick Ludeen and Dean Davenport, Cabrillo Park; Walter Lindsay, Irvington; and Paul Melvin, Glenwood. Mrs. Alvena Leal, Tipper representative for the area, was the demonstrator.

The wail of a newborn infant is breaking the stillness of the night on the Norris Road. At the home of the John G. Pihls there is a new grandchild, the first granddaughter. Katherine Marianne Kiessling was born to the former Betty Pihl on October 22 at Kaiser Permanente Hospital. Katherine started her life at night and she's been turning night into day ever since. She weighed eight pounds, 12 ounces. Betty will return to her home in Washington as soon as she is able to travel.

Shades of things to come: A new model home furnished in the contemporary style by Jackson's will be opened at 368 Eggers Street, November 21. New members of the staff of Glenmoor Homes Inc. are Vera Lee and Alice Beck. Miss Lee, who maintained her own decorating shop in Belmont and formerly spent three days a week at Glenmoor, is now working on the Glenmoor Homes on a full-time basis. She will coordinate the colors for all new homes and be available for consultation on decorating to new home buyers. Mrs. Beck was formerly employed as a home designer by the Robert O. Wilhelm firm of Redwood City. She designed homes in Atherton, Woodside, San Mateo, and Menlo Park. Her job is to revise plans for Glenmoor homes incorporating some of the ideas found in more expensive homes. The work from her drawing table will be found in all homes produced by Glenmoor after the current starts. Vera Lee and Alice Beck have bought themselves a Glenmoor home and have settled down to live at 435 Whitfield.

One bright spot in all these hunting tales: Floyd Pulliam, Norris Road, went hunting. He went hunting again, three or four times. Last weekend he went hunting with O. L. Doss of Mattos Drive and he shot a buck. That would have been enough for most people but Floyd found out he was hunting in a two-deer district so he went out again and shot another buck. Two bucks in one week-end!

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dutra, Norris Court, spent last week-end visiting with her mother, brother, and sister in San Francisco.

The Muffet Chapter of Children's Home met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Parker, Glenmoor Drive last week to plan a fashion show and luncheon, to be held at the Castlewood Country Club for the benefit of the Children's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmet, Mattos Drive, will celebrate Saturday night with friends of like football sentiments at an annual dinner party at the Crow Canyon Chateau.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Spitzer, Westwood Ave., entertained old friends from Wisconsin last weekend: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lenarduzzi went to the University of Wisconsin with the Spitzers and were visiting from Milwaukee.

New official hours for the U-Save Market are nine a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. The Peter Johnsen, Glenmoor Drive, won the television set last Saturday and Mrs. C. N. Dutra, Norris Court, won groceries.

The Halls of Elliott Street were hosts October 24 to the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coursin, Cabrillo Park, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brube, Alameda, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wentworth and their brand new son from Danville. The Halls also entertained friends from Southgate the early part of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stiehl.

Joe Allen, Norris Road, has a new baby. His baby is a brand new red MG, purchased a week ago Saturday. Have you seen it? He says he bought it to drive to work. You can see him nearly any day giving his darling a bath. He uses Ivory.

The Charles Greens and Ben Alwads attended the California-

NEW RESIDENTS

The Eugene Lacey (Irene) into their new home, 468 Downing Ave., October 14. They are from Hayward, have two girls, Maryanne, 9, and Martha, 5. Mr. Lacey is an operating engineer for the Frank Freitas Construction Company and sometimes works on the Glenmoor Gardens tract.

All the Millers now live in Glenmoor. That is, the Millers of the Miller Shoe Store, South Main, Centerville. Leonard Miller (May) moved into 379 Blacow Road on October 24. Their only son, Bob, (Robert B. and Lucy) moved into their home, 252 Elliott, the first week in October. Bob has only been out of the Army a couple of months and is working with his father in the store.

James J. Dahl (Harriet) moved to Glenmoor from San Leandro the last week in September. They have one married daughter, Mrs. Eugene Le Plane of Oakland, and two sons Ron, 18, and Kenneth, 29. Ron is currently attending Oakland Junior College. Their address is 451 Whitfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning Gewertz (Lillian) and son Bob, 14, moved into their new home, 471 Whitfield, late last month. Mr. Gewertz is a Navy man and has been stationed in Cuba for the past two years.

Birthdays in the news: An ice cream, cake and balloon party was given for Donald Campbell on October 31, his third birthday. Those present were: Pamela and Jimmy Dutra, Jimmy Milner, and Jimmy Faulkner.

Peggy Zawadzki was honored on her twelfth birthday, October 22, by a dinner party. Guests were: Scott Zawadzki, Kathy Willmet, Joyce Burrous, Randy Owen, and Lee Lickler. The party grown-ups played Canasta and danced.

Phillip Hay will be seven on November 8.

Presbyterian Fete

On Friday afternoon, November 5, the women of the Centerville Presbyterian Church are holding their annual bazaar.

This year's version will be the old fashioned "Kountry Kounter." A complete program has been planned for the whole family: tea from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., dinner from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Organized play for small children and movies from 8 to 9 p.m.

The many booths of the "Kountry Kounter" will consist of delicious things to eat, garden plants and dried flowers for table arrangements, sewing-and-needlework booth, a homemade candy counter and white elephant table. The public is invited.

For the dinner, phone for reservations, Niles 4587 and Centerville 88756.

Centerville Merchants Unite For Friday Night Opening Program

In a united, progressive move to attract and serve local shoppers, nearly 30 Centerville merchants this week are cooperating to inaugurate Friday night business.

The action was taken at the urging of the Centerville Merchants Association. Gordon Morris, president, said the group has pledged to stay open until 9 p.m.

"In this way, we hope to provide convenient hometown shopping for families who have only one car, or in which both adults work," he declared.

An experimental Friday opening was tried last week with about 20 merchants taking part. It proved an instant success.

"I did more business that one night than I did the rest of the week," one woman declared.

With the holiday season approaching, association members and the rest of the town's business folk were solidly behind the program.

These are the businesses taking part:

Betty's Baby Center, Sunrise Bakery, Sid's Pharmacy, Kleine's, Stitch Edwards, Florence Porter Florist, Waltons TV, Waltons Drug Co., George's Shell Station, Cloverdale Creamery, Miller's Shoe Store, Mildred's Ladies Apparel, Jerry's Gift Shop, Western Auto Supply, Michael's Credit Jewelers, Rowlett Garden Supplies, Charlie Holiday Insurance, Vee Bee Apparel, Centerville Food Market, Bud's Recreation, Berkeley Savings & Loan Association, Township Cab & Ambulance, Gordon's Drapery Shop, Hodges Realty, L & V Cafe.

If the program proves successful, Morris said, it could be a permanent affair for the Township's shopping hub.

Country Club Show Busy Rehearsing

The one-act comedy scheduled for presentation by members of the Country Club of Washington Township on November 12 was in final rehearsals this week.

Announced today was the musical ensemble which will be featured at the show:

Pianist, Estelle Logan; Marimba and majorette, Wilma Peters; Drums, Evangeline Muller; Clarinet solo, Virginia Loze; Cornet solo, Iva Marble; Flute solo, Dorothy Finlay; Bass viol, Janet Granger; Tuba Beth Grimmer; Violin solo, Dorothy Musick.

Emily Robinson is director. Also programmed is a group of vocal duets by Blaine Wilson, tenor, and Ruth Wilson, soprano, of Hayward, Wilson is a member of the Hayward Fire Dept. He and his wife are donating their talent to this occasion, in generous and gracious desire to help the club women with their building fund.

Tickets for the evening are now available from the Mmes. George Harvey, Mabel Oaks, Evangeline Muller, Margaret Humpert, Florence Myrick, Margery Manning and Winifred Bendel. Only the seating capacity of the hall will be sold, and no tickets will be sold at the door.

Social Security Changes For Farmers Outlined

Two significant provisions in the 1945 amendments to the social security law relate to farmers. Township agriculturalists were reminded today.

Approximately 5,700,000 persons who earn a living in agricultural work will be affected by these changes. On January 1, 1955, an estimated 3,600,000 self-employed farmers, and about 2,100,000 more hired farm workers will automatically be brought under the old-age and survivors insurance program said Edwin R. Williams, field representative of an Oakland District Office of the Social Security Administration.

Attends Confab

The annual educational meeting of the Optometry Alumni Association of the University of California was held on the Berkeley campus of the University October 30 and 31. Attending from Centerville was Dr. John Austin, O. D.

TRY THE WANT ADS

Beginning January 1955, any farm employee who paid as much as $100 in cash wages during the year by an employer is covered by social security. This means that the farm employer, in case he has such an employee must report the cash wages and remit the four percent social security tax contribution—two percent to be deducted from the employee's wages, and two percent contributed by the farmer. Although the farm operator and these additional farm workers whom he hires will not begin to earn their social security until January 1, 1955, it is not too early for the farm operator to learn about his rights and obligations under the new law, Williams said.

The social security program is financed by the tax contributions of those whose work is covered under the law and, in the case of the employed, a matching tax contribution by the employer. The taxes collected from these employed and self-employed men and women are put into a Trust Fund where, with accumulated interest, they are used for payments to persons who are eligible for benefits under the law. The contribution rates have been fixed so as to make the system self-supporting.

Williams stated that if a self-employed farmer has never been in work covered by the

The social security card is the identification to the individual's social security account, and it is the key to his future benefit payments.

AROUND TOWN

We are disillusioned again... We always thought wine was made with grapes... now, according to the latest commercials, we discover that wine is made with love. Hmmm... What's in a name... take your popular dance band leaders.

Tommy Dorsey, Benny Goodman, Sammy Kay... now gander at the country or western music lads... "Pee Wee" King, "Tex" Ritter, "Cottonseed" Clark... long-hair types bear such regal sounding names as... Leopold Stokowski, Eugene Ormandy, Sir Thomas Beecham... and bop.

ns got over the likes of Jumping George, Swinging Deacon, Rockin' Lucky and their real "gone" boppers like the Midnighters, Cords and Drifters... and what (name) brand are you buying?

We noticed something in town that is hotter than Jumping George... and it jumps right out at you too... have you noticed the colorama fireplace smokstack on the Jack Slater home on Olive? Real gone... Jack qualifies as this week's exterior decorator.

We see our friend and ex-grocer, Frank Gyax, has started carving himself another niche in the business world. This time he is seeking his fortune (or enough to support his lovely wife and four kids) in the real estate and insurance business. You will find him in the E. B. Hodges Real Estate Insurance office in the Center Theatre Building. Hodges reopened the office on November 1 and Frank will assume an active role in the business. Good luck.

Add to things we didn't know, but do now, is that table salt is not refined directly from the crude salt which is now being harvested in abundant quantities (good crop this year) from Leslie ponds here. Crude salt is returned to brine and again crystallized in its tiny form through artificial evaporation and is tested to meet "99.46 per cent pure" standards. The soap that is so pure it floats advertises 99.46 per cent pure so it looks like salt is practically purely pure.

Brine shrimp for tropical fish food is taken from salt ponds here. So are mudsuckers, a peculiar fish that can live for more than a day out of water and makes good bait. Most of them are shipped to inland fishing centers where live bait is a premium. Both enterprises are carried on by individuals with lease rights from Leslie. All the preceding info was gleaned from remarks by Harlan Bradley, Leslie executive, before the Kiwanis club.

The drainage ditch through the Ranchitos tract looks like it could stand a cleaning out job before the rains... we thought that we were doing pretty good with that bit until we attended the Home Owners Improvement Association meeting last week and found the drainage ditch to be the number one issue brought up. They say it is a health and safety hazard... seems as though kids can and do climb the fence... the builder has completed the job according to specifications, according to George Silliman who heads the civic committees, so the HOIA will write to Supervisor Chester E. Stanley for action.

A "football banquet" honoring Newark's Little Leaguers will be held this Saturday from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., at the Community Center Building, Newark Rec. directors will hand out awards to the boys. Refreshments and movies will be enjoyed by all who attend.

Bill and JoAnn Chandler came back to town last Monday but it was for a very short visit as far as Bill was concerned. Tuesday, after a week of loafing, Bill headed back for San Diego to board the destroyer "Richard B. Anderson" to sail for Japanese waters. Bill is a Metalmith second class and this is his turn for an overseas tour of duty. JoAnn will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis, while Bill is overseas.

This bit of service news brings in the plight of Louie Gene Milani who has been sweating out Army life since October 18. Chest out, stomach in, sound off and on the double to KP (King's Paradise) where the thinner you peel them, the more that gets in the pot. Louie's eight-week course in "doing it the Army way" started on November 1 at Fort Ord.

Rickey's was the setting for a luncheon in honor of Mrs. G. Merle Witercraft last Sunday afternoon. Enjoying the delicious luncheon were the Mesdames Robert Peters, Marty Sammon, Eugene Carroll, Carl Pierce, George Worley, Robert Milne, and Mac Currie.

PCF Gerald L. Springer was a member of the Honor Guard for the United Crusade Torch Light drive at the City Hall in Detroit, Michigan. Celebrities he was guarding included the one and only Jackie Gleason, Connie Haynes, Lee Ann Meriwether, the beautiful Miss America (nice duty for this lad) and Warren Hull the Strike-it-Rich man.

Andy and Hendrika Venema are bound for New York for a much deserved vacation and to meet and welcome to America Hendrika's brother, Henk Nagtegaal, when he arrives from Holland. The Venemas have operated Katharine's Bakery for the past year and intend to return to their home in Hayward and return to the bakery business following their vacation. Nagtegaal is a machinist and will come to California with them.

Paul and Katharine Heiling are back in the familiar surroundings of Katharine's Bakery once again.

The infantizing Mrs. Elaine (Dr. John) O'Connor was honoree of a stork shower given by Mrs. Shirley Buschke last Friday evening. Showering the happy Mrs. O'Connor with lovely gifts were: Mesdames Belle Haller, Kay Kettman, Lillian O'Connor, Rose Romito and Vermilda Sylva of the local ladies and coming from San Francisco for the affair were the Mesdames Helen Williams, Rita Scherer, Simone Perotti and Misses. Dolores O'Connor and Margaret O'Connor.

Mrs. Pearl Scott left last week on an extended visit to Oklahoma. She drove back with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brown, who live in Modesto. While in Oklahoma Mrs. Scott will visit her daughter Christine and Skip Lacey had a double "coming out" party last week. They both had their tonsils removed at San Jose Hospital... more ice cream and jello please.

Garry and Jackie Armstrong enjoyed having her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hayes and Frank Jones of Oakland and Mrs. Edith Roberts from Pampa, Texas as Sunday dinner guests. Mrs. Roberts has been visiting in Oakland with her sister, Mrs. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Le Court gave a birthday dinner to honor Barbara Pagan and Joe Garcia on their big days which were Oct. 22 and 29 respectively. Their guests included Barbara's husband, George Pagan and children, Rocky and George Ray; Mrs. Alex Bernard and Cindy, Mrs. Joe Garcia and Marsha Kay, and Stephanie; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hudson and Allan and Rochelle.

Missing at the dinner table were Clarence Le Court, the host, and Alex Bernard. They had a perfect alibi for their tardiness... watching the 49ers tame the Lions at Kezar.

Marta McGinnis celebrated her fourth birthday last Wednesday with a party of refreshments and games for "ill folk." Her young guests included: Bobby Pierce, Randy Peters, Linda Serafino, Cassia Short, Veleta Witercraft, Christine Carroll, Margie and Mary Currie, Nancy Ligon, Cheryl and David Woodward.

We understand the eighth grade girls are receiving instructions in the fine art of baby-sitting from 8th grade teacher, Mrs. Gladys Fahner. When the girls have completed the course they will be issued certificates.

Gregory Popst, son of Kenneth and Meta Popst, celebrated his 7th birthday last Thursday with Halloween style evening party. He was joined by a room full of his young friends who were anxious to share in the games and refreshments. His guests included: Donna Vargas, David Freid, Kenneth Carrion, Neil and Steve Castillo, Jimmy and Bobby Mantooh, Tommy Funston and his brother Steven. A farewell party for the departing T/Sgt. Harmon Thacker and his charming mate, Dorothy, was held last Tuesday at Bancho's in Hayward. Harmon recently returned from Korea where he served for the past year. He will report for duty at the Shaw Air Force Base in South Carolina. Dorothy and their children Diane and Tommy will accompany him East and make their new home in South Carolina, temporarily, because they are looking forward to the day when they can return to their home and many friends in Newark. Joining the Thackers at Bancho's for the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hersey, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pitman.

Last Saturday was "the day" for a quartette of Newark fishermen trying their luck in Frank's Tract. It might seem like we have a direct hookup on the "stork line" at times but sometimes we can get news by the more conventional method of telephoning. Like this week, when we were bending our ears we discovered a new baby cooing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Willoughby on Noel. She is learning to smile when you call her Barbara Gail just like her big brother Billy learned his name five years ago.

We had much the same luck while chatting with Sarah Pitman and she was telling us how her husband, Leon, has been simply telling everyone addition to the family is... We think she is kinda proud of baby Kathryn Ann too... and big sister Judy Lynn undoubtedly thinks she's cute too.

Halloween Prizes

A Halloween parade was held at the Allen G. Norris School last Friday.

Youngsters awarded prizes for the best costumes were: Kathleen Hegen, witch costume, and John Dvorack, man from Mars. They are both in the third grade. Judges were: Mrs. M. S. Castro, Mrs. O'Neil Burrows, and Mrs. Richard Mendonca.

Maciel, Linda & Joan Pessagno, Diane Lewis, Rosalie Zbzensky, Margaret Churka, Diane Weibel, John Howe, Michael Kelley and Terry Grimmer. Maurine Thiesen and Mary Maciel were there to help mom, Pat Binder, with the serving and refereeing.

The planned Halloween activities were all a great success thanks to everyone cooperating to make it so... from the small fry in the afternoon, the 5th thru 8th graders in the evening and the Teen Club dance at night... and the trick-or-treat Saturday night was done by well-behaved youngsters out our way. But that was a nasty trick the Bears pulled on the 49ers... there are tears in Mudville tonight.

Niles Cubs Move To New Quarters

Cub Scouts, Den 1 of Niles, have moved into their new headquarters at 740 Second Street.

Opening day was brightened by a beautiful bouquet of yellow gladiolus and white carnations, presented by Al Lopez, Niles florist.

Mothers of the Cubs came and enjoyed the merry mix-up of twelve young boys discussing ways of achieving awards at the monthly pack meetings. They put on a Halloween skit called "How to Get Ready for Halloween." The Cubs were very proud of winning the Attendance Banner, also the Award Trophy for their display of a Halloween scene.

Judges announced that the Tin-Can Telephones really work. Wolf Badges and Gold and Silver Arrows were presented. Cubs are: Frankie Duarte, Johnny Duarte, Gary Fracoli, Denny Franco, Jerry Janssen, Robert Tuana, Warren Weissenbacher, Leon Lanfri, Kenneth Manuel, Jimmie McCart, Howard Silva and Timmy Kelly.

Ann Perry Honored By St. Jude YLI

Officers and members of St. Jude Institute, Y. L. I., of Irvington, set aside their Halloween festivities to honor Ann Perry, a charter member and recording secretary for ten years.

They presented her with "YLI Life" and a cigarette lighter with the emblem of the order. At refreshment time a beautiful cake, with the inscription "Your YLI Life, Ann," was enjoyed by all. Honored guest also was Gertrude Dooley.

ORCHARD PARK

"BROWNIE" REPORTS

By Don Brown, Orchard Park
Hi Ya Folks: Well that old long-legged bird did make a landing as predicted a couple of weeks ago. In fact he landed right in the George Kolberg yard, 185 Datra Way. The old bird delivered little Gary George, through the facilities of Palo Alto Hospital, on Thursday, October 28, weight six pounds twelve ounces. Papa George is doing OK at last reports. Now he can have an assistant manager at the Western Auto Store.

Speeders: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith of Smith-Peters Co. arrived home Tuesday evening last week from Chicago. On the flight in a D C-7 a new world's record for passenger ships was established. The elapsed time from Chicago to San Francisco Airport was 3 hours 43 minutes, 10 seconds. That Smith family certainly covers the ground in a hurry.

Betty Smith, Frigidate Home

Economist, gave a home cooking demonstration Friday at the Town and Country Furniture store. Many ladies took advantage of the opportunity to avail themselves of new ideas in cooking demonstrated on the latest model Frigidaire electric range. Evidently the food was good because when I got there only the hors d'oeuvres were left. She demonstrated the art of cooking roast beef, cookies, popcorn and numerous other foods. Very conspicuous in a light dinner jacket was Elmer Nelson, proprietor of the store.

Meet the folks: Today's introduction is for Ray Alvarez, owner of the new Men's Wear Store on Towers and Thornton. Ray was born in Pittsburg, California in 1922. He was educated in Pittsburg and Antioch schools. He is married and is the father of four children, two boys and two girls. Before opening the new store, he operated one in Alvarado for five years.

During World War Two, Ray served four years in the army with service in Australia, New Zealand, and the Philippines. We are happy to have him with us in the Orchard Park Shopping Center and his fine new store fills a long needed want in the Township. Best of luck Ray from all of us.

Socially Speaking: Mr. and Mrs. John Glacier and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wilson of Berkeley were guests of the George Smiths Saturday, the event being Mrs. Glacier's birthday. Cards and dinner were enjoyed by the group.

Sooks: The "trick-or-treat" gang surely kept us busy Saturday evening. Before we could finish dinner I answered the door bell nearly a 100 times to help fill the bags held open by the little tots. Honestly I have never seen so many really cute get-ups as showed up at our place. Some were so small they were just toddlers but their costumes and masks indicated a lot of time had been put in by the folks before they were sent out. Very noticeable was the 100 per cent politeness of the youngsters. We were greeted by a polite "thank you" by even the smallest of the door bell ringers.

Comment: You know folks, we older people sometimes have our faith in the human race badly shaken and often wonder just what is going to happen to this old world. Then some little thing takes place which immediately raises our hopes again for mankind. Such an event happened recently in this locality and I believe you will agree with me "it was nice"—A certain merchant and his wife were called out of town for the afternoon. Before leaving this man was heard to remark that he sure would enjoy a stewed chicken for dinner when they returned. A neighboring merchant happened to overhear the remark so immediately visited the nearby grocery and market, purchased a chicken and started it cooking in the first party's store. When the man and wife returned, there was the stewed chicken all ready for them. Maybe I am an old softy but this little gesture impressed me.

Home Again: The Joe Chandlers arrived home from Texas a day late. They had been expected to get here Thursday but did not reach Centerville until Friday. In Joe's estimation there is no place quite like our town.

Ambulance Rolls: Careful driving paid off this week for all concerned. Only three accidents took place last week. On October 25 at 3:08 p.m. a runaway truck, on a ranch near Vargas Road resulted in serious injury to the driver. The 31st at 12:06 p.m. a two-car collision, one mile south of Mission San Jose necessitated taking a family of four, to Fair-

Warm Springs Zone Bid Near

Zoning for Warm Springs will be considered by the Supervisors November 30.

This decision came last week, along with agreement to set hearings the same day for rezoning four acres on Durham mont Hospital. Luckily as far as is known, there were not too serious injuries received in the accident. Monday, the 31st a two-car rear-end collision on Marsh Road at 10:34 a.m. took place with one driver being taken to Fairmont Hospital with slight injuries.

The Warm Springs zoning would take in the entire school district, plus some of the Irvington School District south of Cushing Road and east of the Southern Pacific tracks. It has been opened by the County Planning Commission.

The supervisors also set November 16 to hear three amendments designed to protect subdividers who hold approved maps for tracts in which lots are smaller than zoning calls for.

Delay on these amendments has held up construction of a 120-home tract west of St. Mary's School in Mission San Jose.

A double christening ceremony is planned for the household of Mr. and Mrs. James Semas, of Mission San Jose, for their new arrival, Leonard James, born October 11, and Toni Lee, two years old, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Mission San Jose. Godparents are Carl and Bernadine Pitts.

Bill Dawson, son of Mrs. M. Dawson, of Second and H Streets, spent the week-end with his mother. Bill is now attending the Mountain Ranch Montezuma School for Boys, in Santa Cruz.

Your reporter entertained this week end Miss Mae Martinson of Seattle, stenographer for the Blake, Moffitt & Towne Paper Company. Martie was astonished at the magnificent weather.

Cora B. Reeder of H Street spent the week-end with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mae Menoc, of San Fernando Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peters of Smith-Peters Investment Company, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nelson of Centerville, went to Castlewood Country Club for dinner and dancing.

Marriage license was issued to Julio Marquez Rivera 40, and Carmen Parada, 31, both of Decoto.

I attended the afternoon cooking school at Town and Country Home Furnishings, on Thornton Avenue, Centerville, sponsored by Frigidaire and Newark Electric Company. Betty Smith, prepared the cooking and demonstrated the usefulness of the electric range.

About forty-five interested women attended the afternoon class. At the end of the session I had the pleasure of meeting Don Brown, Orchard Park columnist.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson of Westwood Avenue, Centerville, went deer hunting at Twin Harbors—no deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson, of Birch Road, Newark, were blessed with a baby girl, Karen Louise, born October 14 at the Alameda Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burns, of Riverside Avenue, went bass fishing at Antioch; came home with cat-fish instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Silva, of Second Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Abbie Silva went deer hunting at Yreka, also spent three days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tony Machado, who live at the foot of Mt. Shasta. The Silvas enjoyed seeing the snow, but arrived home with no deer.

Mrs. Mae Martin, of Whipple Road, Alvarado, had a family birthday party October 26.

Lorraine Alameda is back with the San Francisco Bank of Niles.

Catholic Women's Guild met at the home of Mrs. Wilhelmina Andrade, of King Avenue, for their monthly meeting. Father R. O'Connell opened the meeting with a prayer. Just as refreshments were being served, the lights went out, and all scrambled for candles. Alice Andrade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Andrade, played a number of selections on her accordion.

Mrs. Emily Vargas of San Leandro is a guest of Mrs. Margaret Gemignani of Tyson Lane. Emily is recovering from a heel operation.

Mrs. Lucy King of Alvarado Road, who has been ill, is now improving.

Mrs. Mary Nares, of Baine Avenue, Newark, celebrated her birthday with a party.

Mrs. Mary Lindo of Newark has left the hospital, and is now recuperating with friends in Santa Cruz. Members and officers of S.P.R.S.I. Council 79 wish her a speedy recovery.

I was just wondering how many of us that work nights were affected when the lights went out twice in one week. The first was due to the heavy wind we had, but the second was caused by a flight of ducks that knocked down an 11,000-volt P.G.&E. power pole line.

Mr. Benicasa had to shave with the aid of a flashlight, a poor one at that, and a hand razor. Now we have bought candles.

Carl F. Hagen, of Lexington Avenue, Decoto, cub scout master, presented the Webelos Badges to Kenneth Manwaring and Jimmie King of the Hillview Crest Club.

Lee Geba, barber on Thornton Avenue, Centerville, is praised by his neighbors for his excellent cakes and pies.

Members of "Voice of Portugal" Local 6, send their sympathy to the families of Mrs. Gonzale Silva, Newark.

Mrs. Mary Rose of Newark and Francisca Theresa Rogers of Niles, who have passed away.

Mrs. Dorothy Louarian of Santa Clara and Mr. and Mrs. John Viera of Oakland visited Mrs. Ida Vargas of Third St. who is still ill. Dorothy, formerly Dorothy Vargas, lived here in Niles.

Rites For Brother Of Niles Man

Charles Wickliffe Baldwin, 93, prominent in educational and civic affairs in Hawaii for many years, who died at the Palo Alto Hospital after a brief illness, was given final rites there last week.

He was the brother of William A. Baldwin of Niles, and uncle of Mrs. George Roeding Jr.

He was known as the father of the Hawaiian teacher pension system, had written a geography of the islands, was one of the founders of the Outrigger Canoe Club and, as engaged in writing a book on his family history. His grandfather, the Rev. Dwight Baldwin, went to the islands as a medical missionary in 1831, and his son, David Dwight Baldwin, was inspector general of Hawaiian schools during the reign of King Kalakaua.

GENERAL DEAN'S WARNING

Down in San Jose the other day, General William F. Dean, heroic fighter and war prisoner in Korea, spoke before a service club and reminded all of us that in one of the most vital aspects of national defense, Americans are living in a fool's paradise.

General Dean said he hopes Congress next year will move to remedy the present situation which permits many young men to escape the military obligation they owe their country both by laxness of the draft laws and looseness of the law which is supposed to keep a trained man in the reserves for a time after he is discharged from active duty. The general noted that President Eisenhower has said he wants this program given highest priority.

There is good reason for such priority, the Korean veteran pointed out. Between Russia, Red China and their satellites, the Communist powers can field an army of nearly 50,000,000 men on three months' notice.

America cannot hope to match this human horde, General Dean agreed. But through a skilled and ready reserve, America can be in the best possible position to repel attacks on this continent. However, he went on, "in 1953 alone, this country discharged 900,000 men from the armed services. Every one of them cost taxpayers $11,000 to train and support for two years."

Supposedly then, this country had these 900,000 trained men in reserve. But only 45,000 of them joined National Guard or organized reserve units. Said the general: "The other 855,000 are just names on paper — and you don't fight with names on paper. These men have let the skills taught them go down the drain because of disuse."

General Dean recognizes with President Eisenhower — and with groups like the American Legion — that in a democracy the privileges and obligations of citizenship must be shared equally. This includes the obligation to defend one's country and home against tyrants' attacks.

Since we are not going to adopt the course of matching the Reds man-for-man, the least we can do is make the best use of the men we have. Such is not the case in 1954. A dangerous gap therefore is apparent in our defenses.

Into this gap, America someday may have to throw the flower of her manhood, untrained or rusty. The result will be appalling. To head off that possibility, Congress must forswear its past political timidity. It must enact effective laws (1) to make the maximum use of our young manpower by military training for every young man, and (2) to assure that, once trained, the soldier keeps his military muscles supple by a stint of reserve service.

TIME TO THINK ABOUT WATER

If you haven't done so, take a few minutes of serious "thinking time" and read the report of the Water District's engineer on Page 1 of this issue. It is packed with dynamite.

Washington Township has been turning out its pockets to keep pace with the needs of schools and sewers, two items which begin to pinch an area the minute it starts to grow like ours. In the realm of water, which is just as important, we have been getting along with a 1940-model system, forgetting that nobody goes places with a 1940-model car in 1954.

As Engineer Binkley points out, the watery day of reckoning is at hand. Storage and distribution systems must be expanded at once, because the present ones simply can't handle what's upon us.

Even more awesome is the need for developing new supplies of water. Should it be brought over the hills from the Central Valley Project — a multi-million-dollar problem? Or can it be developed locally from underground supplies?

These are questions the water directors have to face and answer before the Township's destiny is assured. The questions must be answered soon.

HEW TO THE LINE

News that the State Highway budget contains money to start completing the Freeway through our Township is welcome news indeed. This newspaper has carried the torch for that particular job for nearly three years, and we believe it is the most important single bit of news to come our way in that time.

No sooner did Townshipers hear the report, however, than there came word of another threat to the Freeway down here. San Lorenzo residents, concerned over congestion during peak hours, are asking that the same Freeway be widened from High Street southward before any more funds are appropriated to finish the job to Warm Springs.

While we who live in this area recognize the desirability of a wider Freeway in the north, we also do not lose sight of the prime reason for the Freeway: to speed traffic flow between Oakland and San Jose. Once this is accomplished, then enlargement of the existing facility can be contemplated.

But until the gap is closed, San Lorenzo commuters should give their custom to existing alternate routes, like East 14th Street, and should forego trying to sidetrack the main issue.

Tale of a shirt: At the sheriff's substation the other day it looked for a minute like congratulations were in order. Lt. Joe Sheehan was wearing captain's bars on his shirt. Promotion? No. Joe's shirt hadn't made it back from the laundry, and he had to borrow a clean one from his boss, Capt. Dick Condon.

Subdividers around here are running out of names for streets in their tracts. Common practice is to name 'em after themselves, then after their wives, children, old girlfriends, favorite movie stars, and what that — what?

For a change of pace, I'd suggest Kangaroo Court, Salvage Drive, but definitely not Skid Road or Goa Way.

Get-well Department: Reuel Brown, county employee, secretary of the Niles Fire Commission, and rising officer of the Elks, suffered a heart attack in the Alameda Elks Club and is in the hospital. Reuel's friends got a real shock — he's only 38.

Did you know: Cliff Tinsley, manager of U.S. Pipe & Steel plant near Decoto, is the father of famed All-American End Gaynell Tinsley?

EVER WISH YOU HAD: Walt Connolly's gift for mimicry? Bob Blacow's ability to pick good-looking employees? Bill Helm's talent as a master of ceremonies? (or for ladies only) Lillian Kettman's flair for clothes?

There's an old saw about being hung for a sheep. Recently a new liquor store opened in the Township. It advertised orchids for ladies on opening day. You never heard so many excuses from the gals caught red-faced and orchid-decked. Seems every one of them picked that day to bake a rum cake and that's how they just happened to get the orchids.

FRANKENSTEIN: Our family was for years the last holdout against television. Finally we got one to keep the kids home in the evening. We didn't want it in the living room, it was in the way. The guest room was too small. The children might knock it over if we put it in their room. So guess where the Big Eye ends up? In MY bedroom! I'm moving out on the porch.

San Francisco has its opera and theater; Washington Township opens markets and shows new cars. Everybody you know was at Brunelli's on Thursday to see the new Chevies (Cadillac j.g.s) or at Di-Giulio's Friday to see the dreamy new Pontiac. Ford is next. Joe Adams and all the boys (and me) saw the new ones Monday at the Fairmont. MMMMMM!

The season for whist parties has arrived. As a non-player I'd like to see an occasional fund-raising project planned for bridge or poker players.

I've noticed that each year the people I speak of as "just kids" seem to be older.

I'll bet you gave a cheer too after reading the news that the Freeway's to be extended five miles.

If only we had a member of the legislature living in this area, driving from Centerville to Irvington at five p.m. or turning into Niles at the same time, we'd have the rest of the Freeway.

From stories I hear, it's no wonder the ducks get away, by the time they fly over some local hunters all the nimrods can see are pink elephants.

A Centerville woman says she looks forward each wash-day to see if she'll come out even, with just enough clothes-pins, and enough line space to hang 'em all out.

Doesn't it sometime give you a start to see the rear end of a car bearing down on you, atop an auto-carrier truck?

No wonder his son misbehaves, when that Irvington dad brags about his misdeeds.

Every now and then some one tells me in an amazed tone of some nice deed done for them by officers at the sheriff's sub-station. I told you they're nice fellows.

That low-calorie bread is that way only because it's sliced thinner!

Whenever I see children playing in and around new homes being built, I worry, there are so many things that could fall on them, or they could fall into.

I've found one of the most attractive houses in the Township built next to a busy highway, and looking very plain on the outside. You've passed it dozens of times without noticing it.

Let the kids spread peanut butter on graham crackers, put a marshmallow on top and place in a warm oven until it melts. Delish!

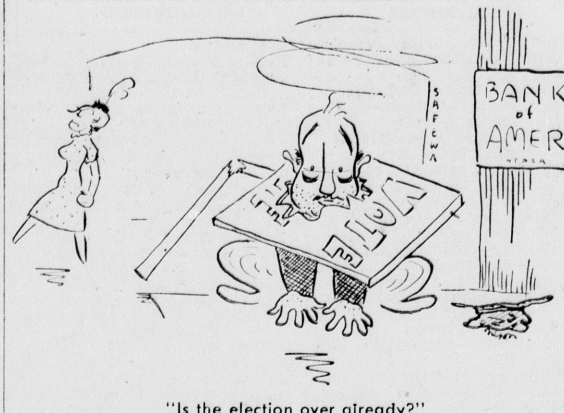

If you're planning a trip over the mountains, you'll need antifreeze. No matter how warm it's here, snow has arrived in other areas.

Now you can see why everyone urged you to vote, and why didn't you?

After seeing how attractive a green and black oilcloth shade is, I may copy an Orchard Park mother and have red window shades in the kitchen myself.

WHAT'S NEW IN LOCAL STORES With a real pumpkin pie taste, that pumpkin ice cream at Bobbies Ice Cream, in Newark will end any meal perfectly. You'll cook better using Farberware stainless steel, aluminum clad pans, available along with electric percolators made by the same company at Neilson's Hardware, Centerville.

No need to wait around for your nails to dry if you start using Revlon Quick-Dry, a spray-on nail enamel dryer, sold by Walton's Drug Store, Centerville.

Brand-new in Centerville, at 175 South Main, Betty's Baby Center has all kinds of children's toys, including orlon fleece-foam rubber toys that can be washed and dried, and are allergy-proof.

Now is the time to lay away a five-piece coffee server set at Michael's Credit Jewelers, in Centerville and Newark. Just arrived from New York at Kirkish's Department Store, are fall dresses made of washable acetate and priced at only $3.98. Spot, featuring 100% ground beef burgers, and open until 2 a.m., Friday and Saturday nights.

Need extra seating space in your home? A card table and chair set from Connolly's new store in Irvington will fill the bill. They are in many colors, and made of lightweight aluminum.

'Life' Revue At S.F.'s Alcazar

"That's Life", the sparkling Buddy Pepper and Inez James, new musical revue which opens an engagement at the Alcazar Bergman, Hal Levy, Lenny (United Nations) Theatre, San Francisco, on Tuesday, November 9, has been patterned after the format of Life Magazine, the twenty-four numbers and sketches representing features ranging from Manners and Morals to Picture of the Week. "That's Life" is the combined effort of a score of some of America's foremost writers and tunesmiths, including three Academy Award winners, among them are Jay Livingston and Ray Evans, Johnny Mercer, Jr. and Yvette Vickers.
